Precision, Inc. (Precision), today announced Joe McMullen will be the new Vice President of Manufacturing. Joe will be tasked with the manufacturing operations for PPI plants in the United States and Canada.

Joe has most recently been the Vice President of Operations for Kreg Tool in Huxley, IA since March 2018. Joe brought a more holistic production and sourcing approach that provided great capacity, capabilities and flexibility to the entire supply chain function. Prior to joining Kreg Tool, Joe was with Brownells, Inc. (Brownells) in Grinnell, Iowa. He joined Brownells in 2009 and served as the Vice President of Operations. Throughout his career, Joe has held a variety of key leadership roles. Joe has more than 20 years of proven experience setting strategy, developing leaders, achieving cost savings and providing exceptional customer experience.

Precision is excited to have him as part of the leadership team.
